Welcome YUKI !

Mahalo for your interest in Kamehameha Schools (KS) Na Ho'okama a Pauahi, a need-based scholarship available to undergraduate and post-baccalaureate students. KS funded scholarships are not intended to cover the full cost of your college education; however it can provide some additional support.

We will notify you by mail in July 2007, with the decision of your Na Hookama scholarship application for the 2007-2008 academic year. Your financial aid award will be sent to your institution's financial aid or business office upon receipt of your signed acceptance of award form and other documents required for disbursement. Upon confirmation of your enrollment status from your school, the award amount will be credited to your account each term. Should the amount of financial aid award exceed your term bill, we encourage you to discuss this with your institution's financial aid or business office.

KS requires all recipients to adhere to the KS terms and conditions. Any violations of the terms and conditions may result in award suspension, termination and may include repayment conditions.
