

Create Markers for your Garden Plants

Find out what plants you have in your māla or pā hale and some information about each one. This resource might help: Our Plants. Create signs with the name and some information about the plant. Use materials found around your home. Find a way to put your sign next to its plant. See the examples below. Take your 'ohana on a tour of your garden and share the information you found about each plant. You can even make plant markers for your neighbor's pā hale too!

