

Garden Friends: Ladybugs

Did you know that ladybugs are garden helpers? They eat the insects that like to eat the leafy plants in gardens. Watch the read-aloud video about ladybugs. See if you can find any ladybugs in your māla. Create some “ladybugs” for your garden by painting small stones to look like them. What other insects are garden helpers? Click on the link below, learn about them and see if you can find them in your pā hale. Create some with materials you have around your house for your garden.

Ladybug Read-Aloud

Other Garden Helpers