Class of 2024 News

Hālau Kūkalaulama is keeping you informed by forwarding this important message from the Class of 2024 Counselors:

Aloha Class of 2024 ‘Ohana,

We hope this finds you well! We’re a month into the new school year and want to thank everyone for the continued support.

The 2024 counseling team invites you to attend the following:

- What: Quarter 1 ‘Ohana Night
- When: Thursday, September 23rd at 6:00 p.m.

Quarter 1 ‘Ohana Night will introduce the 2024 counseling team, review graduation requirements, share 10th grade success tips, and preview the Naviance Curriculum.

To attend, please RSVP by MONDAY 9/20 4:00 p.m. at the following link:

RSVP 2024 Quarter 1 ‘Ohana Night

Space is limited and the RSVP will close once the maximum is reached.

We encourage and welcome questions! However, we are a class of 456 students and may not be able to get to everyone. For any questions you have, we’re asking to please submit it to the following link: Quarter 1 ‘Ohana Night Questions

The question link will be shared with families and remain open a few days after the presentation for any additional questions.

If there are any questions before then, please email your student’s counselor:
